

“I Will Not Quit”

The Author of this work is a Rwandan man in 1980 who was forced by his tribe to either renounce Christ or face certain death. He refused to renounce Christ, and was killed on the spot. The night before he had written the commitment "The Fellowship of the Unashamed" which was found in his room. Bob Moorhead had written this in his book "Words Aptly Spoken" c. 1995

“I am a part of the fellowship of the unashamed. I have Holy Ghost power, the die has been cast, I have stepped over the line, the decision has been made, I am a disciple of Jesus.

I will not look back, let up, slow down, back away or be still. My past is redeemed, my present makes sense and my future is secure. I'm finished and done with low living, sight walking, chincy giving and dwarf goals.

I no longer need pre-eminence, position, prominence or popularity. I don't have to be right, first, tops, recognized, praised, regarded or rewarded.

I now live by God's presence, lean by faith, walk with patience, lift by prayer and labour by power. My face is set, my gate is fast, my goal is heaven, my road is narrow, my companions are few, my Guide reliable and my mission is clear.

I cannot be bought, compromised, detoured, lured away, turned back, deluded or delayed. I will not flinch in the way of sacrifice, hesitate in the presence of the adversary, negotiate at the table of the enemy, ponder at the pool of popularity or meander in the maze of mediocrity.

I will not give up, shut up or let up until I have preached up, stored up, stayed up, prayed up and paid up for the cause of Christ.

I am a disciple of Jesus Christ, I must go until He comes and preach until all know it works and when He comes for his own, He'll have no problem recognizing me! ”
